

Lita Ford to play Buffalo Chip

By Journal staff | Friday, April 03, 2009

Previous StoryNext StoryPrevious PageSharePrintEmail

Rocker Lita Ford, once a member of the all-girl band The Runaways, will play just 75 concerts this year, including Aug. 3 at the Buffalo Chip Campground during the Sturgis motorcycle rally.

Ford is returning to touring after a 15-year break to raise her sons. She is perhaps best known for her hit single "Kiss Me Deadly."

Related Stories

Most Popular

Long-time biker advocate Bob Illingworth dies at 68

Giago featured on NPR's 'Tell Me More'

It's Hanks vs. Redden in race for Rapid City mayor

Spring blizzard brings out the shovels, blowers, aches and pains

"She is the personification of the rock spirit that moves our audience of bikers and other music fans," campground owner Rod Woodruff said in a news release.

The Buffalo Chip also for the first time will host the annual "Motorcycles as Art" exhibition, Aug. 1-8, by renowned motorcycle photographer Michael Lichter. He has chronicled the Sturgis rally through his photography since 1979, and has been curator of the photo display since its inception in 2001.