The Things We See, The Places We Go And All The News That Fits!

Sucker Punch Sally's new website

Posted on February 25th, 2009 by Lisa Ballard

I saw the posting on myspace, pretty cool and user friendly. Check out the videos when you get a chance. Job well done!

"We have changed a few things and left some things alone. We will be maintaining the site more frequently and as always we have a ton of new stuff happening all the time. The new site will have a bunch of new videos that we will be adding to throughout the year. We also want to keep some of the elements alive from our last site so you will see the return of our "Owners" gallery and "Our troops" gallery. We also encourage you to send any photos you have of your SuckerPunch bike as well as any military photos you want to pass along. We hope you enjoy the new site and we want to thank all of you for your supporting us over the years. We are just getting started so stay tuned. Thanks - SPS Crew"
